

SUMMERHILL HOUSE VOLUNTEER GUIDELINES AND AGREEMENT

Thank You for Supporting Summerhill House!

We appreciate your willingness to volunteer and hope your experience here will be both rewarding and meaningful for everyone involved.

Since the welfare and protection of our children are our top priorities, we kindly ask you to follow a few important guidelines during your visit. Please note that your volunteer assignment may be terminated if you fail to comply with these guidelines.

Our goal is to create a safe and nurturing environment for the children. Your presence at Summerhill House will have a lasting impact on the children, our organisation, and the broader community. We ask that you always conduct yourself as a positive role model for the impressionable young minds around you.

Important Information:

- Summerhill House is not responsible for any illness or injury that may occur while volunteering, nor can we provide medical advice.
- We are not liable for the loss or damage of personal belongings.

We sincerely appreciate the time and effort you dedicate to enriching the lives of the children. We hope your time at Summerhill House will be a fulfilling and memorable experience.

Media Permission:

I hereby grant permission to Summerhill House NPC to use photographs and/or video footage of me/my child (the volunteer) in publications, news releases, online platforms, and other communications related to the mission of Summerhill House NPC.

I have READ and AGREE to the guidelines outlined in this volunteer agreement. I understand that failure to comply may result in the termination of my volunteer assignment.
